Campaign Content & Channel Support: Supported Campaign execution based on Campaign Briefs and Content Calendars; coordinated marketing assets, product information and copy versions across Instagram, TikTok, EDM and Website, ensuring consistency in product information, brand tone and visual presentation across channels.

Influencer Research: Conducted preliminary Influencer research using publicly available information on Instagram and TikTok; assessed potential partners based on follower scale, engagement, content style, audience fit and brand alignment, providing foundational information for Influencer shortlisting.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Shenzhen

Sep. 2020 – Mar. 2025

Admissions Office | Senior Executive Assistant | Brand & Communications Team

Apr. 2022 – Mar. 2025

Executive Assistant → Senior Executive Assistant | Two promotions within three years

Seasonal Marketing & Event Operations: Planned event rhythms around key holidays and the admissions cycle, developing branded events aligned with different communication and recruitment objectives, including national key high school forums, the AI-era Education Development Forum and Undergraduate Admissions Open Day. Planned and delivered 40+ large-scale annual events with 1,000+ attendees and 190+ small- to mid-scale events, covering campaign planning, material production, cross-functional coordination, vendor management, on-site execution, post-event communications and archiving.

User Growth & Integrated Marketing: Developed differentiated content and channel combinations based on the information needs and media habits of prospective students, parents and high schools; built and operated the official Douyin content matrix around four core themes — “Authentic Campus Life + Student Experience + In-depth Academic Insights + Trending Topics” — to support different stages of the admissions journey. Achieved 10M+ cumulative views, growing followers from 4,000+ to 15,000+, with the top-performing video generating 26K likes.

Brand Content & Visual Communications: Participated throughout the production of 32 campus brand videos covering key admissions touchpoints including recruitment season, Open Day, application season and offer season; handled requirement breakdown, script planning, vendor coordination, filming execution, post-production review and multi-platform distribution. Contributed to the development of 200+ admissions handbooks, event posters and promotional materials, and worked closely with external vendors on the planning and delivery of 200+ branded merchandise items, including admission offer gift boxes, orientation gifts and graduation souvenirs.

Brand Ambassador & Campus Community Operations: Built and managed a 133-member student ambassador team with a three-tier structure of core ambassadors, project leads and student ambassadors; managed recruitment, training, task allocation, performance follow-up and incentive mechanisms to establish a sustainable campus communication team. Led the “Gratitude to Alma Mater” high school outreach project for three consecutive years, organizing student ambassadors to conduct admissions promotion across 300+ key public high schools and continuously expanding brand reach among target student audiences.

Partnerships & Brand Experience: Served as a key external communications contact for the university, working with key high schools, education authorities and research institutions; developed a partnership network covering 26 provinces, 15 education bureaus and 300+ key high schools. Supported visits from key partners and external stakeholders by coordinating internal resources, tailoring visit itineraries based on visitor profiles and partnership needs, and delivering on-site presentations and university brand experiences. Developed a standardized reception SOP for the Ferry Learning Project and supported long-term external partnerships and university brand representation.
